

KEVI CAMP HILL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

ENGLISH

CURRICULUM MAP (YEARS 7-11)

		AUTUMN TERM	SPRING TERM	SUMMER TERM
KEY STAGE 3	YEAR 7	“People” unit: exploring a range of texts & including work on reading, writing & spoken language skills. Readathon Novel study, ‘The Way Past Winter’ by Kiran Millwood Hargrave: exploring different contexts, cultures & experiences through discussion of setting, character & narrative techniques.	Novel study continued. Poetry & Form- develop understanding of some key poetic forms & their own use of language in poetry writing. Poetry project	An introduction to Shakespeare & ‘A Midsummer Night’s Dream’ End of Year exams: Assessment of key knowledge and skills taught in Year 7
	YEAR 8	Play study: ‘Our Day Out’, exploring writer’s intentions, with a focus on formal/informal writing. “Children” unit: extracts from 19th century texts such as ‘Jayne Eyre’ & ‘The Mill on the Floss’ & also non-fiction extracts.	Classics reading project “Animal” unit: exploring key animal issues (e.g. animals in captivity); expressing opinions in writing & delivering a debate speech; animal poetry	‘Romeo & Juliet’ End of Year exams: Assessment of key knowledge and skills taught in Year 8
	YEAR 9	Novel study: ‘Roll of Thunder’ by Mildred D. Taylor. Write a newspaper report based on a key incident from the text. Debate speech: work in pairs to research, prepare & deliver debate speeches on a range of current topical issues. GCSE-style questions on non-fiction sources based on the theme of the environment.	WW1 poetry: explore a selection of WW1 poems, developing analysis skills & write a literary response to a poem by Wilfred Owen. War Texts: explore fiction & non-fiction war literature extracts, including several depicting the significant contribution made in WW1 by ethnic minority soldiers. GCSE English Literature course starts: ‘Journey’s End’ by R C Sherriff. Explore character, plot, theme & context & develop essay writing skills.	‘Journey’s End’: complete study of this key text. Creative Writing task linked to the play. Summer Term exam: ‘Journey’s End’. GCSE Poetry: study 6 poems from the Belonging cluster of the Edexcel anthology. Descriptive Writing Unit: ‘writing workshop’ style lessons, explore quality pieces of descriptive writing, working towards their own response to a given task.

KEVI CAMP HILL SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

ENGLISH

CURRICULUM MAP (YEARS 7-11)

		AUTUMN TERM	SPRING TERM	SUMMER TERM
KEY STAGE 4	YEAR 10	GCSE English Language: Paper 1 skills Explore a range of fiction extracts, developing skills in retrieval, analysis of language, structural analysis & evaluation of perspective. Complete a full Paper 1 Section A. Narrative Writing (Paper 1 Section B): engage in narrative ‘workshop’ lessons, developing skills in creating setting, character, dialogue, structure & narrative voice. Write a short story in response to a given task. Novel study: ‘Dr Jekyll & Mr Hyde’ by R L Stevenson. Learn about Gothic literature & explore this novella, applying relevant contexts to interpretations and honing analytical skills. Complete a response to a part (a) exam-practice question.	‘Dr Jekyll & Mr Hyde’: Study of this text is continued & culminates with a part (b) response to a practice exam question. Creative Writing: explore extracts from the gothic genre & write a ‘dark’ short story. GCSE Poetry: study a further 5 poems from the Edexcel Anthology. Write a full comparative essay.	Unseen Poetry: explore a range of contemporary poetry, developing skills in interpretation, analysis & comparison. Summer Term Exams: a full Language Paper 1 (Section A) & a response to poetry. Spoken Language: introduction to the requirements of the oral assessment. Guidance in choosing, researching, preparing & delivering presentation to a teacher & small group of peers. GCSE English Language: Paper 2 Section A&B: Develop skills in understanding and analysing non-fiction texts, and skills in writing non-fiction text.
	YEAR 11	Shakespeare: study either ‘Macbeth’ or ‘The Merchant of Venice’, learning about the text’s contexts as well as its language, structural & dramatic methods. English Language Paper 2: non-fiction writing revision and practice. Mock exams.	Poetry: Students complete the remaining poems from the relevant cluster in the Edexcel Anthology & write an analytical essay. English Language Paper 2 Section A: Develop reading skills necessary for Q1-4.	Revision continues until standown. Final exams!